Meet Our Guest Speaker Gail Frahm

Gail Frahm is the 2021-2022 District V Vice President of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) and Trustee for the Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund. She is a 29-year member of Cass River Charter Chapter and a former ABWA scholarship recipient. She joined ABWA to "Pay it Forward" to others pursuing higher levels of education as well as for personal and professional development. Through her years in CRCC, Gail held every executive board position, Gail was a founding student and employee of Delta College's Honor's Program and played basketball for the Delta Pioneers. After marrying her 4-H sweetheart, Tom, she received her bachelor's degree from Saginaw Valley State University with a major in communication and minors in English and management.

Aside from her ABWA involvement, Gail enjoys singing, traveling, being with family, coaching basketball and track, collecting stamps, genealogy, bonfires, alone time and homemade wine!
